CONGRESS GIVES AWAY COOK BOOKS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congress is playing Santa Claus this week with one of its biggest giveaway sprees in recent years. Each member has been given 3000 copies of a newly prepared Government printed cook-book for free distribution. The book was prepared by experts hired by the Agriculture Department on order of Congress. Here Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D., Calif.) looks thru one of the cookbooks.

France Shies Away From West Germany Union

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager, I.N.S.)

PARIS, March 22.—France shied away today from acceptance of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's proposal for immediate economic unification of France and West Germany.

Adenauer's proposal for economic unification as the first step in creating a Franco-German union was given exclusively to this correspondent yesterday at Bonn, Germany.

The French government decided to welcome what was termed a "conciliatory offer" by Adenauer. However, French officials suggested that a strengthening of Franco-German relations should be achieved through existing organi-

Rain-Making Experiment Start Is Near

NEW YORK, March 22—(INS)—New York's rain-making experiment may start tomorrow if atmospheric conditions are favorable but amateurs may jump the gun on the $50,000 undertaking.

Dr. Wallace E. Howell, New York's 36-year-old meteorologist, said police planes and men will be ready tomorrow to trigger their first cloud in the effort to overcome the city's water shortage.

Meanwhile, the U. S. Weather Bureau in New York said its advice has been asked by a number of plane owners who want to get into the act.

Meteorologist James M. Osmun said:

"We've discouraged them as much as possible. We've told them that such experiments must be conducted only under the most scientific conditions."

But some of the pilots, he said, are going ahead with it despite lack of official authorization.

One man said he was going up yesterday with a quantity of dry ice. Rain mixed with some snow fell in New York yesterday but the weather bureau said it was the real McCoy and not man-made.

Congressmen To Get Chance To Register On Balanced Budget

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I.N.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 22—House GOP Economy Chief Taber of New York declared today that Republicans will give members of Congress a chance to go on record on whether they want to support a balanced budget.

The top-ranking minority member of the House Appropriations Committee, who headed the economic drive in the Republican 80th Congress, termed the 29 billion dollar omnibus bill approved by his group yesterday "too big." The measure contains funds for governmental operations for the 1951 fiscal year beginning July 1.

Will Seek Further Cut

Taber told newsmen that he will try to cut the bill two or three billion dollars on the floor. The measure will be taken up by the

INSTITUTE OF BOILER ENGINEERS HAS CONFERENCE HERE

HOLLYWOOD, March 22—(INS)—The Little Variety, the so-called "Bible" of Hollywood, today predicted that "All the King's Men" will win the Oscar as the best picture of the year at tomorrow's award presentation.

The movieland magazine also tabbed Broderick Crawford, star of "All the King's Men," as the best actor of the year, and gave the best actress nod to Olivia De Havilland for her work in "The Heiress."

Because of almost infallible prognostications past year, movieland takes the Variety predictions seriously.

Variety's straw balloting is conducted among a cross-section of members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences which presents Oscars.

Turn Three Down

After two days of debate an economy-minded mock legislature had passed only one major bill while turning thumbs down on three. Breaking party lines, the student legislators defeated a $300,000 federal aid to education measure. They rejected by a wide margin a bill designed to give women equal rights with men and defeated the controversial Langer bill outlawing liquor advertising in interstate commerce. The legislators passed a bill designed to expand and extend veterans' educational benefits.

$50,000 FOR RAIN

New York City's serious plans for setting up a $50,000 budget to finance six months' of rain-making experiments are fascinating.

While it is true that 1950 man is considerably more sophisticated than his ancestors were in appreciation of what puny man can do to change the forces of nature, the whole thing still goes against the grain. The 1900 man, for instance, who had a healthy respect for nature's mixed blessings, would probably have snorted and dismissed the whole affair as a quasi-Barnum stunt.

His sons are not so sure. Those living in New York City's metropolitan area face a serious prospect of a water-short existence that may last for years. Time caught up with the city's planners. Something has to be done.

A rain making team under Dr. Wallace E. Howell, a Harvard meteorologist, will set up shop in the Catskill area plotting cloud formations by radar and seeding them, when the time is propitious, with chemicals shot from mortars. They dream of adding inches of rain annually to the area. The picture of crystal clear, gurgling streams pouring their goodness into the Catskill reservoirs is a pretty one to say the least.

Several scientists feel that the "rain stimulation project" (they laid off calling it rain making!) has a good chance of success. Apparently the city fathers feel that $50,000 isn't much to pay if it will alleviate the town's water shortage. Estimates of the cost of new ground projects to bolster the supply into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

The public will keep an eye on the fat cumulus clouds that march in formation over New York state to see what gives.

ONE BIG BILL

Congress is trying out a new method of handling its spending job this year. In the hope of keeping the federal government's outgo lower than the President's budget estimates, it has decided to lump most of its appropriations in one big bill. And it looks as though the experiment may save the taxpayers some money. The House Appropriations Committee has decided tentatively to cut the amounts President Truman sought for the items covered by the measure by $1,213,000,000.

This is a hopeful development because it seems to indicate the new procedure will work. The public has reason to remember that the old piecemeal system resulted only last year in a bigger outlay than the President had asked for—despite all the talk about economy.

Of course, the decision is only tentative. After the bill is reported out, log-rolling on the floor of the House could knock the whole structure galley west. And there is the Senate to be considered. In recent years the House has been more economy-minded than the other branch of Congress. In a word, the road to economy is rough and beset with pitfalls.

BEARDS FOR MEN?

Not content with adding millions to women's "over-head" cost, in the matter of hair styling, one of the prominent hair stylists now urges beards for men.

"The beard is a necessity that nature put on man and he's too scared to help nature along" says the learned hair stylist pontifically. All of which is so much eye wash if you don't mind.

Beards a necessity? For what? Hiding a dirty shirt front, substituting for a necktie or straining soup? And if beards should be allowed to grow on the grounds they are a necessity, why not finger nails, or hair on the head?

Nature has done a lot of marvelous things for the human race but there are things nature forgot which man has brought into use. Pants for example. Or sport shirts or garters, or bow neckties with neon lights.

As for beards for men, we are strictly in the corner of the clean shaven crowd. For those males with chins that seem to be hiding from public view, beards are probably okay. For young men with immature faces, who want to appear older, beards may be just what the doctor ordered. Add a monocle too if you wish but we're still against beards.

As for the ladies, we cannot believe they want their men running around the streets with faces that look like an untended lilac bush. As one sweet young thing said recently, "beards are a ticklish proposition."

No, we're against the idea of beards for men. Whether they are Dundrearies, Muttonchops, Spades, Goatees, or just the common or garden variety we're still against them.

Beards for men? Never. As well suggest bringing back knee breeches, powdered wigs or congress garters.

Bathing suits of fish scales are the latest. Dangerous, say we, if one should swim too close to a too enthusiastic angler.

Many a college football star finds it tougher to pass during mid-term exams than he did at any time during the grid season.

Reports from Wyoming tell of finding there of a mummified man only 14 inches tall. Oh, for the ancient wild and woolly west where men were midgets!

Major Test Is Facing Bidault

A major test of French Premier Georges Bidault's ability to deal with militant communism is shaping up as the first shiploads of military equipment sent under the Marshall Plan approach the coast of France.

The government is moving with utmost care as a crisis, if not actual violence and bloodshed, is threatening.

There is one possibility that the Communists may reverse themselves, as they have done frequently in the past, and throw the whole picture into an entirely different light.

Taking No Chances

But guarded dispatches from Paris indicate that the government is taking no chances and will treat the arms arrival on the basis of original instructions from Moscow that Communists in France would interrupt and if possible destroy the shipments when attempts are made to unload them.

The precautions include the assignment of more than 600 troops and Republican guards to the great port of Cherbourg, where the first arrivals are expected.

There are hints, however, that the military measures taken there, which include vast barbed-wire emplacements and similar barriers reminiscent of the Nazi German change preparations in pre-invasion days, may be a feint.

Arrival Port Secret

Every effort is being made to keep the arrival ports a secret in the hope that loyal dockworkers can get the ships unloaded before Communist "Commando" squads can go into action.

Certainly the strength of armed forces concentrated at Cherbourg, with thousands of reserves in readiness for instant action, seems designed to force the Communists to converge their own best activities in the area.

If they do so, surprise landings at L'Orient, Le Havre, Bordeaux or Marseille might prevent the Communists from carrying out their intention.

There are rumors that ships loaded with arms, ammunition, war planes and tanks might rendezvous

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

INATTENTIVE STUDENT PROBLEM TO TEACHER

An occasional teacher, observing my constant emphasis on how a child feels when he is trying to learn and on the importance of his feeling comfortable and hopeful, may, I suppose, ignore some very practical matters. She may say: "Dr. Myers overlooks the child who deliberately makes himself a nuisance in the classroom who does not conform to the few necessary reasonable rules, who will talk so as to interrupt when another heard, who will engage in wisecracks and distracting antics or move about with apparent purpose to annoy. He forgets that there may be 30 or 50 other children in the classroom."

I don't overlook such children. I have taught at all grade levels. And let me say here that many a patient teacher is wearing herself out tolerating deliberate nuisances by such children and that too few of these teachers have adequate backing of the principal for healthy control. If the teacher is to do her best and the welfare of the entire class is to be assured, a certain degree of conformity by every child must be required, so far as conduct is concerned.

Certain Rules

Assuming that the children can see that certain rules are desirable, those few children who are chronic annoyers need to be brought to their senses. Even if some of their annoying conduct is caused by deep-lying factors which could be found through adequate expert study, it certainly is not always practical for the teacher to wait for such expert study. She must go on with the many other children and she must conserve her efficiency. Let us remember, too, that some of her chronic annoyers have never learned at home the alphabet of regard for the rights of others. There are times when she must take immediate action, even isolate a chronic annoyer physically or psychologically for a period of time. Perhaps the average teacher is expected to tolerate far too much nuisance behavior in a few of her pupils.

But all the foregoing does not conflict with my constant emphasis on how the pupil feels when he is trying to learn, think or speak in class after volunteering or being called upon to speak. As I said yesterday, "While one might force a child to stand or sit in a certain position and to turn his head and eyes in a certain direction, nobody in the world can compel a person to keep any specific idea constantly in his head."

As Parents

Suppose you as parent or teacher have the child physically in position for attention. You are almost wholly responsible for how well he can concentrate then. He must feel hopeful and comfortable. The stage must be right for him to enjoy success. Then you need have little worry about his concentration. (My bulletin, "Parents and the Child's Homework", may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

But as a teacher or parent we are prone to grow vexed at him over his errors and to ridicule his blunders or forgetting to charge him with inattention and laziness even to shame him.

In the classroom such emotional blows come to him in addition to the impatient, ridiculing attitude of the other pupils. We need to do just the opposite and protect him from a feeling of failure and from shame. If only the teacher and parent could know the breadth of the ocean between deliberate bad conduct and helpless failure at learning, a world of suffering by children could be prevented.

Autopsy Report Will Be Made At Trial Today

By PATRICIA BRONTE
(I.N.S. Staff Correspondent)

IOWA CITY, Ia., March 22.—Burly Robert Bednasek who wept at the sight of his slain love's party dress must hear today the clinical details of an autopsy performed on her body.

Dr. Eugene J. Boyd, a University of Iowa pathologist, will take the stand as a state witness at Bednasek's Iowa City murder trial to describe the post mortem he performed on the remains of attractive, blonde Margaret Ann "Gee Gee" Jackson.

Bednasek, a husky 24-year-old student of abnormal psychology at the university, is accused of strangling the 20-year-old co-ed last Dec. 11 after a candle-light and wine dinner in a borrowed bedroom at an off-campus rooming house.

Hangs Head and Weeps

The defendant, a Cedar Rapids, Ia., youth, hung his head and wept yesterday when the prosecution exhibited the frothy evening gown, gilded slippers and under clothing which the co-ed wore for their final meeting.

The garments together with a small notebook and Bednasek's diary were shown to Dr. George Callahan, Johnson county coroner, in a move to admit the lot as state's evidence.

Callahan, the second physician to testify for the state, said he heard Bednasek declare at police headquarters while being questioned:

"Write it out. I'll sign it. I had to do it. I was the only one in the room."

Philly Students To Study Soviet Propaganda Methods

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—(I.N.S.)—School authorities revealed today Russian "propaganda" material being mailed to Philadelphia schools will be used to "further American ideals."

Schools superintendent Louis Hoyer in a letter to principals, pointed out that publications issued by the Soviet embassy will not be banned.

Instead, he added, the pamphlets and magazines will be used by specially-qualified instructors who teach propaganda analysis courses.

"No books, bulletins, pamphlets or papers designed to convey a favorable impression of the Communist governments or any other totalitarian government are to be kept on the open shelves in Philadelphia schools," Hoyer emphasized.

"We pride ourselves upon our heritage of freedom, but we have the responsibility of preventing outside agencies from using our system to further the ideals of totalitarian forms of government," he added.

"This means that we must teach pupils in our schools to recognize propaganda and to deal with it."

'Blue Potatoes' Not Available

According to word received by the Lawrence County Agricultural Conservation committee from the Pennsylvania Production Marketing Administration, Pennsylvania farmers who wish to purchase "blue potatoes" at bargain prices for livestock feed, will be out of luck.

According to Clyde A. Zehner, chairman of the PMA in Pennsylvania, all surplus is being utilized for human consumption, with the exception of the culs and pick-outs.

During the present week, the PMA has scheduled shipment of 20 carloads of potatoes from Potter county to Fayette county, where they will be distributed to the families of miners, who are just returning to work after the long coal strike, and will not be able to get back on their feet financially for several months.

Room For More In Swimming Classes At Ben Franklin

Registrations are still being taken for the Thursday evening women's swimming classes at the Ben Franklin junior high school.

Two classes are conducted during the evening, one at 7 to 8:30 o'clock and the other from 8:30 to 10 o'clock.

Knights of Columbus will hold their regular meeting this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the council rooms, 349½ East Washington street, with grand knight James T. Carey presiding. Many items are to be discussed at this time.

Cite Four Reasons For Egg Production Decline In State

HARRISBURG, March 22.—(I.N.S.)—Federal-State Hatchery reports listed four reasons why Pennsylvania farmers do not plan to increase egg production above the 1950 seasonal level. They are:

(1) Farmers are getting insufficient returns from chickens and eggs.

(2) Prices of baby chicks remain high.

(3) Interest in chicks for flock replacements is weak and (4)

A number of Pennsylvania Commercial Chick Hatcheries are delaying opening and may not operate.

The reductions in flock and egg production will be evident next fall, agriculture officials said.

The survey disclosed the January-February hatch at 14,430,000 chicks in Pennsylvania was the highest in any state for the period.

Reduced demand for flock-replacement and increased demand for broiler chicks prevailed throughout the country, the department reported.

Leftover rice may be added to omelets. Use about ½-cup cooked rice to a two egg puffy omelet. This makes a delicious dish, adds food value, lowers cost.

YOUAHS CUTS FACE

Donald Pontius, aged 18 years, of 710 West Washington street, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital for laceration of the face, received when he ran into a piece of tin protruding from the side of the West Side school, Tuesday evening at 8:10 p.m.

Large Audience Here Is Thrilled By Rise Stevens

If you are thinking of a word to describe the voice of Rise Stevens, Metropolitan mezzo-soprano, "glorious" seems to cover the field.

Miss Stevens closed the season for the Metropolitan Concert Guild Tuesday night in the Cathedral and she sang in a fashion that thrilled the audience. About 2,300 attended.

Her voice reminds you of pure velvet in a golden frame, smooth and rich and vibrant, with the suggestion of a wealth of reserve power. Tones that were full and round and golden, tones that rolled out as effortlessly as a lark sings on a June morning.

Many Songs in English

Miss Stevens proved one thing that has long been waiting for proof in these parts. She demonstrated that an American singer can present a program with a large number of her songs in the English language and do it successfully.

She opened with Handel's inspiring "Where'er You Walk," followed by an aria from "Herodias" by Massenet. Three Negro spirituals were done with feeling and the balance of the first half was in German. Schumann, Strauss, Brahms and Wolf numbers were featured and in these Miss Stevens showed her dramatic ability as well as her musical integrity.

All of the last half were in English save the closing number, excerpts from "Carmen." Perhaps they weren't heavy in the longhair sense of the word, perhaps they were comparatively simple songs but they were lovely, they were sung with the heart as well as the head and those four encores the audience demanded were the answer.

Delight to the Ear

Her diction was well night flawless, a delight to the ear. Every word, every phrase were clean cut, her phrasing was rounded and her interpretation of the various songs demonstrated a singer of moods at her best.

Hers was a concert you did not have to be a musical technician to enjoy. It was built for people with musicality in their souls, it was levelled not at the musical intelligentsia in its entirety but with an appreciation of the fact that out beyond the footlights were a lot of people who wanted real music.

And they got it.

Program for Next Year

The program for the 1950-51 season was shown on the backs of the programs last night. The four numbers include Gladys Swarthout, mezzo, Whittemore and Lowe, two piano teams; The London String Quartet and the Charles L. Wagner company doing "The Barber of Seville in English." Sounds like a rich fare.

Helicopter Joins Search For Cadet

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 22.—(INS)—A New York police helicopter will join the search of the sprawling U. S. Military Academy reservation for Richard C. Cox who has been mysteriously missing 66 days.

West Point authorities, police and FBI men who have been hunting the ex-GI from Mansfield, Ohio, believe he has been murdered. He was last seen on the academy grounds walking to keep a dinner date with a civilian known only as "George".

Navy Will Train Census Takers On Television

SANDS POINT, N. Y., March 22.—(INS)—The navy's special services center announced today it will train 100 census takers by television.

Another group of 100 which will take part in the 1950 census will be trained by conventional classroom methods to act as a test group against which the television trainees can be compared.

Dr. Roy V. Peel, director of the bureau of census, who came to Sands Point for an inspection of plans and equipment, said if television is shown to be an effective teaching medium it will be widely used for the 1960 census.

All 200 census takers in the experiment will be from New York's Nassau county.

Adams County Land Sales May Mean New Discovery Of Ore

HARRISBURG, March 22.—(INS)—Mysterious land purchases in the Hunterstown area of Adams county might indicate that some type ore has been discovered, state geologist S. H. Cathcart said Tuesday.

A Gettysburg attorney paid inflationary prices for farmland near Hunterstown. His refusal to name his client brought a flood of rumors. One has the King ranch of Texas purchasing the land as grazing stop-over to fatten cattle on the way to market. Uranium was another possibility mentioned.

Several months ago a similar situation popped up near Morgan town in Berks county. Recently Bethlehem Steel company announced it bought the land. Iron ore has been found there.

Cathcart said iron ore is known to lie in a general area between Dillsburg and Gettysburg. Surface outcroppings of iron ore were once mined near Dillsburg. Copper also was mined in the area, he said.

Julian Eltinge was actually a man, believe it or not. For years he dressed as a woman (on the stage as a female impersonator) and what a "glamor gal" he was. Born in Boston in 1883, he made his first appearance on the stage in 1904 in Mr. Wix of Wickham. He then appeared in vaudeville in his impersonation. In 1911 he acted the double parts of Mrs. Monte and Hal Blake in The Fascinating Widow. Her Grace the Vampire and Countess Charming were two of his other plays in which he made long tours. A theater in New York City is named for him. He died in 1941.

William Dean Howells, noted American novelist was born in Martin's Ferry, O., March 1, 1837. His early life was spent as typesetter, reporter and editor on various newspapers. While acting as assistant editor of the leading Republican newspaper of Ohio, he wrote The Campaign Life of Lincoln. He was editor and columnist for prominent monthly magazines, and especially noteworthy are the following novels: Their Wedding Journey, The Lady of Aroostook, The Rise of Silas Lapham, A Hazard of New Fortunes, The Quality of Mercy, The Landlord at Lion's Head. He also published poems. His last complete book was Years of My Youth—1916. He was called Dean of American Letters. He died May 11, 1920, in New York.

RED, WHITE OR DARK

When mankind first came into the world they ate their meat raw. They had to catch it and kill it first. Maybe that helped their appetite. They probably didn't fuss much about white meat or dark meat. Scientists tell us that for all practical purposes, meat is meat.

It doesn't make much difference whether it is red or white. After it gets into the stomach, the color does not make much difference.

Nowadays, the trick is to get the meat to taste good.

Jack Spratt and his wife got along pretty well.

A breast of chicken in the stomach is more economical than a thigh in the garbage can.

Buster likes pork chops but they make Rosie sick. Mom will be wise if she gives Rosie the kind of meat she likes.

Display Carpet Made By Queen

NEW YORK, March 22—Any one in the United States or Canada with a mint of money and a yen for a new carpet is playing in luck this spring.

With luck and a sock full of dough, some American or Canadian is going to wind up next summer in full ownership and rightful possession of a Gros Point carpet made in its entirety by the H.R.H. Queen Mary.

The carpet—the most pedigreed piece of floor covering to reach this continent in decades—goes on display today (Wednesday) at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

New York is the first of twenty-two U. S. and Canadian cities in which it will be shown for free, in hope of flushing a really rich millionaire or aires willing to pay beaupour dollars for the queen's handiwork.

To Aid Britain

Her Majesty, who will be 83 in May, is selling the carpet as her contribution toward easing England's dollar shortage.

The carpet, a magnificent piece of needlework, is ten feet two inches long by six feet nine inches wide. It took the grand old lady of England eight years to make its twelve panels, each designed in the English Eighteenth century tradition of flowers, fruit and birds, and the floral border in which the panels are framed. In one corner of each panel is neatly embroidered the royal signature, Mary R.

Anyone who covets the carpet and its dozen royal signatures may send a sealed bid to the governor of the Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, London, E. C. 2. Bids must be in by June 20, and the carpet will go to the man or woman who offers the most scratch.

However, there is one proviso to which the purchaser must agree. He or she must promise faithfully that the carpet will eventually wind up in a public museum or some other equally dignified repository.

Will Be Jerked Out

I understand that the lucky purchaser will probably be permitted to keep and use the carpet during his life time, but no dice on willing it to the kids or Cousin Mamie. At this point the royal carpet will be jerked out from under the purchaser and his legal heirs. It must go to a museum designated by the buyer and acceptable to the committee in charge of its sale.

It is understood that when Queen Mary started the carpet in 1941, she intended it to take its rightful place among the royal heirlooms of Windsor castle. By late in 1949, when she was putting the final stitches on the border, she sent for the Dowager Marchioness of Reading, founder of England's Women's Voluntary Services, and told her she wished to sell the carpet to aid her country's cause.

The dowager queen specified that the money raised was not to go into the nation trust or to any of her pet charities, but directly

Six Fugitives Are Captured

MOAB, Utah, March 22.—(INS) Six escapees from the Colorado state reformatory were captured Tuesday between Moab and Monticello, Utah, after a chase of more than 200 miles.

The fleeing prisoners commanded a truck and two cars, robbed a filling station and kidnapped the proprietor during their wild flight.

The pursuit moved at a 60-mile-an-hour speed across Colorado into eastern Utah, and the prisoners managed to stay one jump ahead of the law for more than 12 hours. On several occasions, road blocks were set up after they had passed.

They finally were trapped after passing through Moab. Grand County Sheriff J. B. Skewes telephoned to Monticello, 90 miles south, and arranged for a road block.

Skewes and other officers overhauled the fleeing prisoners who surrendered without resistance. They were jailed at Moab, and Warden James Thomas of the reformatory was en route there.

Thirteen Million For Philippine Rehabilitation

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(INS)—The House Appropriations Committee Tuesday approved 13 million dollars for Philippine rehabilitation, the amount requested by the administration.

The funds are to be used to complete liquidation of previously granted contract authorizations.

The committee stated that it has been advised that all American operating programs in the Philippine Republic will have been completed and personnel demobilized by June 30, 1950, with the exception of the construction projects carried on by the public roads bureau and the Army engineers.

The committee wrote into its omnibus appropriation bill a provision requiring liquidation of the Philippine alien property administration by June 30, 1951.

The group authorized the use of $160,000 for administrative purposes, a reduction of $55,000 in the amount requested by the budget for the 1951 fiscal year beginning next July 1.

The committee provided $40,000 for the Philippine War Damage Commission, thus making available the final installment on the 400-million dollar authorized by Congress for the payment of war claims.

BUILDING MOVED

Are you a gambler in traffic? Do you take that one little chance to save a few seconds of time? If you do, we think we can prove that it doesn't pay. For example, the average future lifetime of the sixteen-year-old (the minimum driving age) is 50.5 years. In each year there are 525,600 minutes. So when the sixteen-year-old takes a chance in traffic to save one minute of time, he gambles with odds of 17,518,250 to 1 against him because he is a little more than 33 years yet to live. A man 50 years of age, with 21 years ahead of him, gambles with the odds 11,053,370 to 1 and a good chance to lose. So, enjoy yourself, but safely, it may be later than you think.

WASHINGTON, March 22—(INS)—The house appropriations committee Tuesday rejected an administration request for $1,000,000 to bury an unknown serviceman of World War II, and approved instead $500,000 for that purpose.

J. Edgar Hoover Pay Raise Urged

WASHINGTON, March 22—(INS)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was voted a $4,000 annual pay raise Tuesday by the House Appropriations Committee, increasing his annual salary to $20,000.

The committee paid an unusual tribute to the head of the Federal Bureau of Investigations when it provided that the pay boost, the second in less than a year, shall remain in effect only "so long as the position is held by the present incumbent."

As a further mark of its esteem for Hoover, the committee approved for his bureau's expenses in the 1951 fiscal year beginning July 1 the entire amount he requested, $57,400,000.

Hoover's salary was increased by Congress last year from $14,000 to $16,000. The new raise will become effective July 1 if approved by Congress and there was every indication that it would be. Cabinet officials receive $25,000 a year.

The new funds allotted the FBI represent an increase of $4,814,859 over the current fiscal year. The added funds will permit the FBI to employ an additional 700 employees, including 325 new agents.

Miss Anna Dodds has distributed many sheets of literature on temperance in various places and told of progress of the L.T.L. in Oak Street school. Mrs. Oscar Rhodes asks that all people register by March 25, so they may vote at the primaries. Mrs. J. C. Pherson reported two new babies for the W.R.R. department.

Mrs. Harry Glover explained work of the county field worker who will be here soon.

Lunch was served by the hostess with Mrs. John Atkinson, Mrs. Jean Hilliard and Mrs. Zeigler as aides. Mrs. Harry Glover, 409 Boyles avenue, will entertain Friday, April 21, with Mrs. G. J. Forrest leading devotions and Miss Laura Bell as program leader.

An opening song was sung by the group. Scripture was read by the leader followed with prayer by Mrs. Pearl Reynolds.

A discussion on "The Bible in the Public Schools" was led by Mrs. Blanche Humphrey. A reading, "Beer Led the Parade Last Year," was presented by Mrs. Jennie Blevens. "God Governs in the Affairs of Men," was discussed by Mrs. Pearl Reynolds. "Prayer is the Mightiest Force in the hall. This will be an institute meeting with five other unions.

Croton Union

Croton W.C.T.U. gathered in Croton Methodist church. Using "Prayer" as their topic, Mrs. A. L. Brooks led devotions. Prayer was offered for the great need of the power of prayer in our lives, including youth of our land, those in places of leadership, the W.C.T.U. and the coming of prohibition.

Miss Goldie Blaine discussed the lesson, "Remember the Sabbath Day," stressing Bible reading in the home and school. Other subjects follow: "Man's Relation to the Sabbath Is Fundamental," Mrs. P. G. Grossman; "The Fourth Commandment of the 20th Century," Mrs. T. E. McCreary; "Getting Her Boy into Church School," Mrs. V. VanHorn, and "Why Should Our Bible Be Read in Our Public Schools?" Dr. Orr Speaks At Senior High

Dr. Will W. Orr, president of Westminster college, was a Career Day keynote speaker at New Castle senior high school Wednesday morning.

The Career Day for seniors is scheduled for Thursday morning. Students and faculty members alike agreed that Dr. Orr was one of the most outstanding speakers to talk to a student group at New Castle high in many years.

The college president told the seniors that the government did not owe them a living and that a "retirement at birth time" is hardly a practical suggestion for those who seriously plan a future for themselves.

Student Are Warned

He said that young people could justifiably look to the opportunity to make a living; the freedom to make a living; and the educational opportunity to make a living.

Dr. Orr warned the students that although they are much better educated than high school students of 25 years ago, they also must face more serious problems than the graduate of 25 years ago.

The speech also contained many helpful suggestions for those who are about to apply for jobs and for those who are newcomers in a certain profession or position.

Applicants should not go into an interview smoking or chewing gum. They should at all times be gentlemen or ladies. Once in a job, the worker should share responsibility, avoid being critical of fellow workmen, and offer only constructive criticism, not destructive.

Truman Plans Campaign Trip

To Attend Rally In Chicago Also

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(G. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

U. S. SUB BASE, Key West, Fla., March 22.—President Truman will launch the Democratic party's campaign for the November by-election at a giant party rally in Chicago on May 15.

The winter White House at Key West said that the president will speak to the Democratic gathering there in Soldier Field the night of the 15th.

Tip To Northwest

Mr. Truman will visit Chicago in the course of a ten-day train trip to the Pacific northwest.

He will go first to Grand Coulee dam in Washington state to dedicate that giant undertaking.

He is expected at Grand Coulee on May 11, motorizing to the dedication from Spokane. The president probably will leave Washington on May 7.

He is expected to visit a number of other federal projects in the Pacific northwest.

The trip, first of two cross-country train trips during the coming campaign months, is expected to see a resumption of the president's "whistle-stop" campaign technique with which the nation became familiar in 1948.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

WATCH WATCHERS

"Why not give a little call-down to watch watchers who keep peering at their watches several times while in the presence of friends, as if they are impatient to leave. Don't you think this is a rude habit?"

Answer: A famous man whose name escapes me at once stated: "People who are always in a hurry are not completely 'civilized'." I am reminded of these words whenever I am in the presence of chronic watch-watchers.

Offices are full of them—girls who lose all concentration in their work about a quarter hour before lunch or closing time. We find them also at parties—women whose continual check-up on their wrist watches suggests that they are bored and impatient to get away. Of course, when we must excuse for a check-up on the time, but it is in better taste not to make it too obvious than to make the gesture so conspicuous that it may start a general party-breaking movement or otherwise offend the hosts.

For a hostess to consult her watch while entertaining would rudely suggest impatience to have her callers depart unless she should give some excuse as the statement that she must make a telephone call at a certain time or that she wonders why someone who is late has not yet arrived.

Question: When is it proper to inclose "at home" cards in wed-ding announcements; or are they always inclosed?

Answer: They are usually inclosed with the invitations but if you are sending out announcements only you may include them with the latter.

Flood Operations Appropriations Receive Approval

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(INS)—The House Appropriations Committee Tuesday approved $632,620,000 for rivers and harbors and flood control operations by army civil engineers for the 1951 fiscal year, beginning July 1.

This represented a cut of $202,247,500 in the $834,867,500 requested by the administration.

The committee recommended that no further funds be voted this year for planning new projects and accused army engineers of wasting public funds by constantly changing designs after construction had begun.

It advised the House that "such practice is not proper stewardship of a vital and very expensive public function."

The committee approved $187,678,000 for rivers and harbors projects, a cut of $53,036,000 in the budget estimate. It allotted $341,055,000, a reduction of $137,392,000, for flood control work.

During the last few years a great many phonograph records have been made especially for children. Most of them are pretty good, too, well-suited to children's understanding and appreciation. There are at least two "Record Clubs" putting out monthly records for their subscribers and a number of companies which are doing a nice job planning records for children as young as two and three years of age.

One of my fellow staff members at Teachers college in Columbia is an expert on music for young children. For years she has made music fun for kindergarten-age youngsters. Recently she prepared a list of what she thinks are some of the better records for children

Denies Quads Are Offered For Adoption

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., March 22.—(INS)—Ossie Hargraves, father of five months old quadruplet girls, denied today that he had offered them for adoption.

The Sault Ste. Marie low-income worker was quoted earlier as saying "the babies are out for adoption" because of his financial difficulties.

But when questioned regarding the "adoption" offer, Hargraves said:

"It isn't likely we'd do anything like that, but it has been tough going for me, financially."

Not Enough

Hargraves said the city of Sault Ste. Marie so far has raised $5,000 of a $20,000 fund and donated a lot toward building him a home, but that it is not enough to "get started."

He added that "the labor unions have not come through with their early promises of material and labor."

Trustees of the fund said that efforts still are being made to raise more money and that the home will be constructed as soon as possible.

Hargraves said he pays $80 a month for the house he now occupies with his wife and two other children besides the quads.

The father said he is considering a number of commercial contracts involving the quads in an effort to augment his income.

PRECOOKED FOODS FOR HOME FREEZER

When the home freezer is not full of meats, vegetables, and fruits, the space may be used for precooked foods. Set aside a day to bake a quantity of food for the freezer.

Bread, cake, pie, and cookies are especially good frozen. Bake as usual, cool thoroughly, and wrap in locker paper. Cooling is very important. If you frost the cake, use an uncooked butter icing or fudge icing and freeze before wrapping.

Pies may be frozen baked or unbaked. Fresh fruit, mince, pumpkin, lemon, and chocolate chiffon pies freeze well. Meringue does not freeze satisfactorily so make it after taking pie from the freezer.

Leave the top crust whole on unbaked pies, making the gashes when ready to bake. Always freeze pies before wrapping. Paper or aluminum foil pie pans are convenient to use.

Cooked foods, such as chili, spaghetti sauce, chicken à la king, or baked beans must be handled carefully. Foods which require long cooking may be prepared in quantities large enough to take care of immediate needs with some for freezing. However, that which is to be frozen must be cooked quickly, packaged when cold, and frozen at once. Plastic or waxed containers are convenient for these products. To use these frozen cooked foods, reheat in top of a double boiler. Do not thaw before heating.

Potatoes, lettuce, or other salad greens, cooked egg white, and mayonnaise are some foods which do not freeze successfully. Dishes made with milk may curdle. Use less seasoning, especially cloves and black pepper, in foods to be frozen.

Because the storage life of cooked foods is relatively short, freeze only that which you will use within a period of two months.

Newport Group Plans Services For Thursday

Arrangements have been completed by members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Newport Methodist church to observe "A Day Apart" Thursday March 23, as a portion of their Lenten program. Two services will be conducted in the church.

Mrs. John Matus, spiritual life secretary, has planned a meeting for women only in the afternoon from 1:30 until 3:30 o'clock. All women are to take their Bibles.

The evening program, open to the public, will be conducted from 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock. At that time the speaker will be Mrs. J. F. Rentz, New Castle, conference president of the W.S.C.S. of Grove City district.

The purpose of "A Day Apart" is to listen to God's voice. Such a day should help us physically and mentally to remove us from the almost continuous sounds that surround us, that we may be able to hear what our Father is saying to us. This is a day set aside for praise, resolution, commitment and rejoicing.

This will be a period of re-examination. "A Day Apart" should be observed so that when we return to our daily duties, we may be prepared to give better service to God and our fellow-beings.

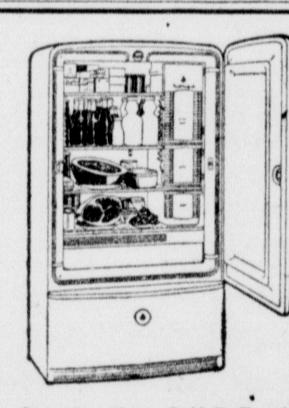

Syracuse Slush May Be Colored In Future

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 22.—(INS)—Syracuse is considering a colorful new approach to handling snow and sleet on its streets.

Public Works Commissioner Frank F. Harmon said he is thinking of mixing a blue-green coloring material into salt and sand spread over snow-covered or slippery intersections.

He said the addition of the coloring would give visual warning to motorists where to apply brakes. And it will be pretty, too.

Part Of Chinese Forces Withdrawn From Mainland Now

TAIPEI, Formosa, March 22.—(INS)—Chinese Nationalist government headquarters on Formosa announced today that part of the forces which invaded the mainland over the weekend now have been withdrawn following completion of their mission.

The Nationalist forces had seized the Communist-held coastal town of Sungmen, 200 miles south of Shanghai.

An official spokesman said that other Nationalist raiders infiltrated Communist lines for the purpose of carrying out guerrilla activities.

Former Stage Beauty Remains Unconscious

NEW YORK, March 22.—(INS)—A 38-year-old former follies belle beauty remained in critical condition today at Roosevelt Hospital from heavy dose of sleeping pills which police said she swallowed in a suicide attempt.

At the hospital this morning, it was stated that statuette, red-haired Betty Jane Moore still was unconscious, more than 24 hours after she was found sprawled on a bed in her incense-filled hotel room, dressed in Oriental white pajamas.

According to authorities the woman left a note saying she was "tired." Friends said she had been despondent since the death of her mother eight months ago.

Boston Braves Have Lost Eight Straight Exhibition Games

Beantowners Not Too Happy

New York Yanks Win Tuesday, 4-2

(By International News Service) Boston's 1950 Braves are one big happy family. The Beantowners acquired strength and got rid of dissenters and over-the-hill players during the winter. Result to date:

The Braves have lost eight straight spring training games. Of course this probably will have little effect on what the Southworth lads will do when the stakes are "for real" come April 18. But the fact remains, The Bostonians aren't exactly burning up the grapefruit circuit.

Yanks Win 4-2

They lost to the world's best yesterday, a 4 to 2 decision to the Yankees at St. Petersburg, Fla. Lefties Tommy Byrne and Joe Page held the National leaguers to six hits, one a home run by young Roy Hartsfield.

The Brooklyn Dodgers unveiled a possible "sleeper" in Bill McCahan, one-time Athletics' no-hit hurler. McCahan looked impressive in a three-inning stint against Fort Worth at Vero Beach. He allowed only a scratch single in three innings. The Brooks won a rain-stopped five-inning game, 5 to 1.

Hoot Evers hit two homers and Jimmy Groth one as the Detroit Tigers slugged out an 11 to 5 win over the Red Sox at Lakeland, Fla. It was Detroit's fourth straight victory.

Goliat Hits Two

The Philadelphia Phillies went on a home run spree at Tampa and humbled the Cincinnati Reds, 14 to 4. The Phils smacked out six round-trippers. Mike Goliat who had a perfect day with five-for-five, smacked two homers and Granny Hammer, Willie Jones, Del Ennis and Ed Sanicki each got one.

Philadelphia's other entry, the A's, ran into a three-run rally by Baltimore in the eighth inning at West Palm Beach and lost to the International leaguers, 6 to 4.

Pirates Edge Giants

In Fresno, Calif., a two-run circuit clout by Ed Fitzgerald gave the Pirates a 4 to 3 win over the Giants. Nanny Fernandez drove in the other Pittsburgh runs in the seventh with a homer.

The home run ball also proved to be poison for the Cleveland Indians at Burbank, Calif. The culprit this time was Sherman Lollar of the Browns, whose three-run homer in the ninth gave St. Louis a 9 to 6 triumph over the tribe.

FRESNO, CALIF.—Pittsburgh Pirate 3rd baseman, Danny O'Connell (40) and pitcher Bill MacDonald (42) wait for the throw from leftfielder Marve Rickert after a wild throw into the outfield letting NY Giant 3rd sacker Nap Reyes slide safely into third, and score on the next play. Pirates won 4-3.

Robinson And Costner Clash Tonight

Champion Ray Is Favorite

Costner Promises Fight Of Career

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—(INS)—A June title bout is the target for tonight when George (Sugar) Costner, jaw-rattling Camden, N. J., puncher, battles Weltier King Ray Robinson in a 10-round at Convention Hall.

Promoter Phil Glassman said he expects a capacity crowd of 15,000 fans to pour some $70,000 into his till because of the great interest in the long-awaited meeting between the two hard-hitting fighters.

Costner, regarded as one of the deadliest punchers in the ring, faces the toughest test of his career in clashing with Sugar Ray.

Seeks Knockout

STOCKTON, Calif., March 22.—(INS)—Catcher Eddy Fitzgerald of the Pittsburgh Pirates is regarded as a good first-string possibility today because of his sensational hitting.

Fitzgerald, pinch-hitting for Pitcher Murry Dickson, banged out his second homer in two days in the tenth inning of yesterday's game with the Giants. The 400-foot homer broke a tie and gave the Bucs a 4-3 victory at nearby Fresno.

The two teams will continue their series in Stockton today.

Pitt Gridders Commence Workouts

PITTSBURGH, March 22.—(INS)—Eighteen lettermen, 13 winners of minor awards, nine varsity squad members and 31 freshman lettermen will report for their first spring football practice session at the University of Pittsburgh today.

They will join center and T-quarterback candidates and some 1949 junior varsity players who have been working informally under new Coach Len Casanova the last 10 days.

Credit hustling Mickey Cochran, one of baseball's greatest catchers, for breathing fire today into the 1950 edition of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Irwin Wins 40th In Row

PITTSBURGH, March 22.—(INS)—Plucky Rockwood High School fought Irwin's Knights on near even terms for three periods last night, then collapsed to lose, 45-34 in a Class B PIAA elimination game at Clinton B. White.

It was Irwin's fortieth consecutive victory and advanced the Knights to the western regional semi-finals. They will meet Cresco, District 6 representative, at Pitt Stadium Friday night.

Softball League Final Meeting Thursday Evening

City Softball League will have its final meeting before the season gets under way Thursday night at the new City building at 8 o'clock, it is announced by League Secretary Carmen Benincasa.

It is urged that all teams desiring to enter the league be represented at the meeting. Managers only are requested to attend. This being the final meeting, teams must have their franchise money in at the meeting.

All persons attending the meeting are asked to use the Grant street entrance.

According to all indications, the league will be composed of from eight to ten teams. It is reported that plenty of playing fields are available to take care of that many teams.

Gonzales-Richards In Match Tonight

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—(INS)—Young Richard (Pancho) Gonzales meets 47-year-old Vinnie Richards tonight in one of the singles features of the $10,000 Inquirer World Professional Indoor Tennis Championships at St. Joseph's College.

Weiby Van Horn and John Novak clash in another singles match, while Frank Parker and Yvon Petra will team up against Carl Earn and Joe Fishback.

Young Bill Johnston expects to draw $250,000 with a wrestling show at Yankee Stadium next summer. He looks forward to the day when the grunts will attract their first million dollar gate.

SPORT SHORTS

The Brooklyn Dodgers, following a fashion dear to the heart of Branch Rickey, are doing business at an old Army air base renamed Dodgertown at Vero Beach, Fla. There, the National League champs do everything, including eat, on a timetable that would turn a trunk railroad green with envy.

Frank Frisch, the gay, gray manager of the Chicago Cubs, is reported to curl the whip over his last-place performers. His predecessor, Jolly Cholly Grimm, was said by some to have been entirely too lax in his conduct of pre-season calisthenics.

Victory or defeat is determined in more than half of all basketball games by the officials. This is too much of a burden on the arbiters. Certainly it discounts playing values.

Juniata college will open its 47th season of intercollegiate basketball April 12 by meeting Lycoum college at Williamsport, Pa.

Needy To Get Farm Surplus

House Committee
Gives Brannan
New Powers

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(INS)—The House Appropriations Committee launched a program to enable the government to give away free to needy people its vast hoard of surplus foods.

The new program will permit the Department of Agriculture to transport and turn over to public welfare agencies surplus foods it purchased for some 350 million dollars to bolster farmers' prices.

Included are some 50 million bushels of potatoes, which otherwise face destruction; 70 million pounds of dried eggs, a good deal already facing spoilage; 23 million pounds of cheese; 215 million pounds of dried milk; 50 million pounds of prunes; 23 million pounds of raisins; 725,000 pounds of rice and dried beans.

Many Eligible

Eligible for the food will be 2,715,000 persons receiving old age pensions, 1,486,000 receiving dependents and children benefits; 92,000 blind, and $43,000 on State and local relief rolls.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan has contended that he has no authority under existing law to pay the expenses of handling and transporting the food to welfare agencies. This has been disputed by some members of Congress, but Brannan has maintained his position. In the meantime, welfare agencies have been unable to underwrite the expenses of obtaining the food.

The appropriations committee, in order to break the impasse, authorized Brannan to pay transportation and handling charges on surplus commodities from a $110-million dollar fund.

The funds are obtained from duties collected under the customs laws and therefore do not represent an increased outlay.

Forum At YWCA

Youth Public Affairs Forum will hold its monthly meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the YWCA.

Mrs. Marjorie Nelson will give a talk the subject of which is "Guidance in the Secondary Schools".

About 220,000 cubic yards of dirt and 80,000 cubic yards of rock were dug up in the excavation work for the permanent United Nations headquarters in New York.

Court HouseCity Pensions
Hearing Friday*Ordinance Validity Is Questioned

Testimony will be taken Friday morning in the equity suit of Jacob F. Genkinger against the City of New Castle.

Mr. Genkinger is complaining of the city pension plan which was adopted over a year ago. He claims the ordinance is unconstitutional and that paying tax money into a pension plan for employees is unconstitutional.

NEFF TO SPEAK ON WATERWAY

County commissioners have received invitations to attend the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association to be held in Pittsburgh March 30 and 31.

The association has been interested in the development of inland waterways for many years and has been pushing the idea of Lake Erie to Ohio River canal.

Among the speakers at the sessions will be State Senator Samuel G. Neff, who will speak upon the subject, "Labor Looks at the Seaway."

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

Among the lawyers of the county there is a difference of opinion over the decision of the State Elections bureau that the vacancy upon the state supreme court caused by the death of Chief Justice George W. Maxey cannot be filled by election this year.

The decision is apparently based upon an opinion of the supreme court that offices cannot be filled after the official notification of such places has been sent to the county commissioners.

In the minds of some local lawyers the decision is good. They take the position that the supreme court decision was good inasmuch as the provisions of the constitution concerning court elections are not self operating.

The constitution calls for the election to fill a vacancy in any court of record, if the vacancy occurs more than three months before the next general election.

Some of the lawyers here believe the constitution requires the vacancy to be filled this year, despite the ruling of the supreme court.
